Using Your Card

Your CEFCU Gift Card is issued by CEFCU and may be used for purchases at most merchants where Debit Mastercard is accepted. The Card may not be used at some merchants including recurring payments, non-financial money exchange establishments, and gambling establishments. Some merchants — like restaurants, hotels, or rental car agencies — may attempt to submit authorizations against the Card for an amount greater than the actual purchase amount. If a merchant attempts an authorization greater than the balance remaining on your CEFCU Gift Card, it may be declined.

This CEFCU Gift Card is not a credit card. You may only use it when there is a balance remaining on the card and only up to the amount left on the Card. Purchases will be deducted from your CEFCU Gift Card until the value reaches zero. If you are given value through the use of the Card greater than the balance remaining, you will pay us on demand the amount by which your transactions exceeded the balance remaining on the Card. Your identification information provided during purchase and/or registration of the card will be utilized to aid the collection of a Card balance "shortage." As well, you authorize CEFCU to debit your account for any amount owed.

To make a purchase greater than the balance on your Card, you will need to use a second payment method — cash, check, credit, or debit card — to cover the difference. When making your purchase, tell the cashier in advance how much to deduct from your Card and how much you will pay with the second payment method.

The CEFCU Gift Card is non-reloadable and cannot be reused. There will be a $5.00 inactivity fee for each month there is a balance remaining on the Card. This fee is waived for months your Card is active and begins on the 13th month after 12 consecutive months of inactivity, based on the date you purchased your Card.

Foreign Exchange

If a Card transaction is made in a currency other than that loaded on the Card, the amount will be converted into the appropriate currency at an exchange rate on the day the transaction is processed. The exchange rate used to determine the transaction amount in U.S. dollars is either a rate selected from Mastercard® from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate Mastercard itself receives, or the government mandated rate in effect for the applicable processing date, plus 1.1 percent.

Right to Restrict Access

We may restrict access to the Card, temporarily or permanently, if we notice suspicious activity in connection with the Card, and we will notify you if we do so. We have no liability for restricting access to the Card because of suspected suspicious activity.

Right to Revoke Card

The Card is the property of CEFCU and we may revoke the Card at any time without cause or notice. You agree to surrender a revoked Card promptly upon demand.

Liability for Failure to Complete Transactions

CEFCU will NOT be liable for a transaction failure caused because you do not have enough money on your Card to complete the transaction, if the merchant terminal is not working properly, or if circumstances beyond our control (such as fire or flood) prevent the completion of the transaction.

Disclosure of Information to Third Parties

CEFCU will disclose information to third parties about your Card and the transactions you make where it is necessary for completing transactions, in order to comply with lawfully issued subpoenas, summonses, warrants, or court orders, in order to assist appropriate law enforcement agencies investigations when CEFCU reasonably believes it has been the victim of a crime or if you give us your written permission. HSA account holders that will be age 55 can make an additional catch-up contribution for the tax year in which they attain age 55 and any year thereafter (until they enroll in Medicare or become ineligible).
